Career Trial – Host Company Frequently Asked Questions

CATEGORY

A.	About Career Trial	2
В.	Cessation of Career Trial	4
C.	Host Company Career Trial Application	7
D.	Shortlisting Jobseekers	14
E.	Training Allowance (TA) and Retention Incentive (RI) Claim	16
F.	Part-Time Career Trial	18
G.	Insurance and Excluded Occupations	19
Н.	Others	19
I.	Corppass	22
Anr	nex A – Exclusion List of Occupations	23
Anr	nex B – Sample Career Trial Activities Plans	25
Anr	nex D – Timesheet Template (For Part-Time Career Trial)	28

A. About Career Trial

1. What is Career Trial about?

The Career Trial is part of the suite of career services offered by Workforce Singapore (WSG) and the Employment and Employability Institute (NTUC's e2i).

Career Trial aims to encourage jobseekers and host companies who are unsure about the job fit to go through a short-term trial before considering formal employment. It is targeted at full-time jobs paying at least $1,500/month and part-time jobs paying at least $750/month.

2. How can companies and jobseekers benefit from Career Trial?

Companies can tap on Career Trial to consider jobseekers for hire through a short-term trial, and they can hire suitable jobseekers after completion of Career Trial.

Unemployed Singaporeans¹ can receive a one-time funding of the following:

- Training Allowance that ranges from $7.50/hour to $15/hour. The quantum of the training allowance will be pegged to prevailing wages of the jobs that the jobseeker is placed in;
- Retention Incentive of $500 at the 3-month retention mark;
- Additional Retention Incentive of $1,000 at the 6-month retention mark for unemployed jobseekers who have been actively looking for jobs for at least 6 months prior to gaining employment upon completion of Career Trial; or for jobseekers who are Persons with Disabilities regardless of unemployment duration.

3. What is Training Allowance and Retention Incentive?

Training Allowance is an incentive offered to jobseekers to help defray expenses incurred during the Career Trial.

Retention Incentive is an incentive offered to jobseekers who have been employed for at least 3 consecutive months after the completion of Career Trial.

¹ Singapore Citizen or Permanent Resident

4. How much Training Allowance can jobseekers receive?

Jobseekers will receive a baseline Training Allowance of $7.50/hour during the Career Trial period. If a jobseeker is placed with the host company after Career Trial, WSG/NTUC's e2i will top-up the Training Allowance to the tiers as illustrated below, where applicable if conditions are met.

These are the three (3) tiers of Training Allowance:

Tier	Minimum Monthly Salary after Career Trial
$7.50 per hour	Full-Time: $1,500 to < $2,000
(No top-up)	Part-Time: $750 to < $1,000
$11.25 per hour	Full-Time: $2,000 to < $2,500
(Top-up of	Part-Time: $1,000 to < $1,250
$3.75)
$15 per hour	Full-Time: $2,500 or more
(Top-up of	Part-Time: $1,250 or more
$7.50)

5. Who is eligible for Retention Incentive?

Jobseekers who fulfil the following requirements are eligible for the Retention Incentive of $500:

- Completed the Career Trial; and
- Employed for at least 3 consecutive months after the completion of Career Trial.

6. Who is eligible for the Additional Retention Incentive?

Jobseekers who fulfil the following requirements are eligible for the Additional Retention Incentive of $1,000:

- Unemployed jobseekers who were actively seeking employment for at least 6 months prior to gaining employment upon completion of Career Trial, or Unemployed Persons with Disabilities who were actively seeking employment, regardless of unemployment duration; and
- have completed Career Trial; and
- Employed for at least 6 consecutive months after the completion of Career Trial.

7. Does the 6 months unemployment criteria for Additional Retention Incentive apply in the case of fresh graduates?

Yes, fresh graduates who have been unemployed for at least 6 months from the date of graduation would be eligible for Additional Retention Incentive.

8. What types of disabilities are considered Persons with Disabilities?

Persons with Disabilities refers to individuals with autism spectrum disorder, intellectual disability, physical impairment, hearing impairment and visual impairment. The proof of disability can be in the form of latest doctor's memorandum and/or membership card of Social Service Agencies (SSA) providing disability services.

B. Cessation of Career Trial

1. Why will Career Trial cease after 31 May 2025?

As part of WSG's regular review of existing programmes and support for individuals and companies, the Career Trial programme will end after 31 May 2025 and companies can tap on other manpower development programmes available, such as the Career Conversion Programmes (CCPs) and Mid-Career Pathways Programme (MCPP).

Brief Description of CCPs and MCPP:

- CCPs provide employers with salary support of up to 90% to reskill midcareer new hires or existing employees into growth jobs roles with good longer-term prospects (Please refer to this link for more details).
- MCPP provides attachment opportunities to mature individuals aged 40 and above. The programme helps mature individuals widen their professional networks and gain industry-relevant skills and experience. Host organisations can also benefit from the wealth of experience that these mature individuals bring along. Mature trainees can be emplaced in a full-time role with their host organisations if they perform satisfactorily during their attachment (Please refer to this link for more details).

2. What are the cut-off dates to take note for the cessation of Career Trial?

Companies and jobseekers are to take note of the following cut-off dates for Career Trial and there will not be any further extension:

Last day for companies to apply for new Career Trial positions:

15 Feb 2025

Last day for companies to send new Career Trial invites to jobseekers:

1 Apr 2025

 Last day for jobseekers to submit jobseeker application (via acceptance of Career Trial invite):

15 Apr 2025

Last day for approved Career Trial jobseekers² to commence Career Trial:
 31 May 2025

3. What happens if I miss the cut-off dates?

You will not be able to apply for Career Trial and on-board jobseekers. Companies and jobseekers can tap on WSG's other manpower development programmes, such as the Career Conversion Programmes (CCPs) and Mid-Career Pathways Programme (MCPP).

Brief Description of CCPs and MCPP:

- CCPs provide employers with salary support of up to 90% to reskill midcareer new hires or existing employees into growth jobs roles with good longer-term prospects (Please refer to this link for more details).
- MCPP provides attachment opportunities to mature individuals aged 40 and above. The programme helps mature individuals widen their professional networks and gain industry-relevant skills and experience. Host organisations can also benefit from the wealth of experience that these mature individuals bring along. Mature trainees can be emplaced in a full-time role with their host organisations if they perform satisfactorily during their attachment (Please refer to this link for more details).

4. What happens if Career Trial invitations are not accepted by jobseekers by the cut-off date?

Any unaccepted invites after 15 Apr 2025 will no longer be valid. Career Trial invites must be accepted by jobseekers by 15 Apr 2025, through the submission of the Career Trial jobseeker application³.

² Or within 1 month from jobseeker application approval, whichever is earlier.

³ Details for submission of Career Trial jobseeker application can be found under FAQ for Jobseekers > Section C Q1

5. Can I still request for additional vacancies for my approved Career Trial positions?

Yes, the last day for companies to submit an application for additional vacancies for their existing approved Career Trial positions is 15 Feb 2025. Please check that your MyCareersFuture (MCF) posting is still valid before submitting the request as the validity of the approved Career Trial position is based on the validity of the tagged MCF job posting.

6. Can I still submit Career Trial claims after the Career Trial programme expires on 31 May 2025?

Yes, if the approved Career Trial jobseeker commenced Career Trial by 31 May 2025 or within 1 month from jobseeker application approval (whichever is earlier). Please take note that the usual claims deadline will apply:

- Training Allowance claim: 6 months from jobseeker application approval date
- Retention Incentive claim: 9 months from Career Trial end date
- Additional Retention Incentive claim: 12 months from Career Trial end date

7. If my company is currently an approved host company, will I be affected by this change?

No, you will not be affected if you commence your approved jobseeker's Career Trial by 31 May 2025 or within 1 month from jobseeker application approval (whichever is earlier). The usual claims deadline will still apply:

- Training Allowance claim: 6 months from jobseeker application approval date
- Retention Incentive claim: 9 months from Career Trial end date
- Additional Retention Incentive claim: 12 months from Career Trial end date

C. Host Company Career Trial Application

How can I apply to participate as a host company in Career Trial?
 Kindly note that the last day for companies to apply for new Career Trial positions is 15 Feb 2025.

You may follow these steps:

- a) Go to Career Trial portal: https://go.gov.sg/ct-employer
- b) Click on

Click Here to Apply

and login via Singpass

Note: You must be assigned with the "WSG G2B Employer Portal" e-service and the "G2B Employer" role in Corppass in order to apply as a host company for Career Trial. You can click here to find out who is your organisation's Corppass Admin.

c) Thereafter, fill up the web application form to submit your application to participate as a host company in Career Trial.

2. What follow-ups can I expect after applying to be a host company?

If this is the first time your company is applying, you will receive an email invitation to attend a mandatory physical briefing session via email. This session must be attended by a representative (HR manager or equivalent) from your company. Please note your application will only be processed after your company representative, who will be the POC in the application, has attended the session.

For the physical briefing session, please note that only registered company representatives (1 per company) may attend the briefing session.

3. How do I check the number of hours and vacancies approved for my Career Trial position?

You may check via the following steps:

- a) Go to the Career Trial Portal: https://go.gov.sg/ct-employer
- b) Click on

and log in with Singpass

c) Look for the relevant Career Trial position and click

d) Look under "Total Hours Approved" and "Vacancies Approved"

4. What happens if my company trial the jobseeker beyond the approved Career Trial hours?

Your company will be liable to compensate the jobseeker directly for the hours beyond the approved Career Trial hours.

- 5. What are the eligibility criteria for my company to participate in Career Trial? Your company must be:
 - legally registered or incorporated in Singapore, with a Unique Entity Number (UEN) registered with ACRA;
 - actively hiring for full-time jobs paying at least $1,500/month, and/or parttime jobs paying at least $750/month, for the Career Trial positions; and
 - be able to offer employment to suitable Jobseekers on permanent terms or on contract terms that are no less than one (1) year after completion of Career Trial.

6. What is the minimum and maximum supportable training duration under Career Trial?

The minimum Career Trial duration is 16 hours for full-time and part-time Career Trial.

The maximum duration for full-time positions is up to 480 hours whereas part-time positions is up to 240 hours (capped at 80 hours per month).

The training duration eligible for funding will be determined based on the Career Trial activities plan submitted by the host company and is subject to approval by WSG/NTUC's e2i.

7. Why is there a cap of 80 hours per month for Part-Time Career Trial?

The usual hours worked per week under a part-time arrangement per employed resident is approximately 20 hours per week, which totals to 80 hours per month. Source: Ministry of Manpower (MOM)'s labour market statistical information.

8. Can I tap on Career Trial if the committed salary is below the minimum monthly salary of $1,500 for full-time jobs or $750 for part-time jobs?

No, your company should offer jobs with a minimum monthly salary of $1,500 or $750 (sum of the jobseeker's monthly gross basic pay and any fixed monthly allowance given on a monthly basis and attracts CPF contributions) and above to be eligible for Career Trial.

9. Does my company need to offer the monthly salary as indicated during the Career Trial application to suitable jobseekers after completion of Career Trial?

The host company should offer the committed salary during application after completion of Career Trial. WSG/NTUC's e2i reserve the right to suspend host companies from the programme if the monthly gross salary offered is below $1,500(full-time job) or $750 (part-time job). WSG/NTUC's e2i also have the discretion to recover all funds disbursed under Career Trial from the host company as WSG/NTUC's e2i may deem fit in the event that the eventual salary offer is lower than the monthly salary committed under Career Trial.

10. Is my company required to screen the eligibility of the jobseekers before inviting them to come on board Career Trial?

Yes. Host companies must check whether the jobseeker meets the eligibility criteria:

- a. Singaporean⁴ who has been actively seeking employment prior to commencing Career Trial;
- b. Unemployed⁵ before commencing and during the period of Career Trial;
- c. At least 16 years old, have completed full-time studies and National Service (if applicable).

11. Are full-time students or individuals enlisting into National Service eligible for Career Trial?

No. Full-time students or individuals enlisting into NS are not eligible.

12. Can jobseekers on internship arrangement be eligible for Career Trial?

No. Jobseekers who are on internship arrangement or any form of employment arrangement are not eligible.

⁴ Singapore Citizen or Permanent Resident

⁵ Not under any form of employment (also includes self-employment, part-time, ad-hoc, casual/temporary work) and have not received any CPF contribution.

13. What does my company have to inform jobseekers before inviting them to come on board Career Trial?

Host companies must brief jobseekers on:

- a. What to expect during Career Trial by going through the approved Career Trial Activities Plan
- b. No. of approved Career Trial hours (refer to Question 3 under Section C on page 7)
- c. Not being in any form of employment (which includes self-employment, part-time, ad-hoc, casual/temporary work) and they cannot enter any form of employment contract and receive CPF contributions prior to and during the Career Trial period
- d. How they will be evaluated for Full-Time/Part-Time employment after Career Trial period
- e. The provision of Training Allowance of $7.50 during Career Trial period, directly by WSG
- f. What they can expect should they accept employment with the company
 - i. Company to share and explain employment terms
 - ii. WSG may provide additional Training Allowance (in the form of topups, to bring total Training Allowance to up to $15/hour) if the jobseeker is employed by the host company after Career Trial and if salary conditions are met (refer to Question 4 under Section A on page 3)
 - iii. WSG may also provide a Retention Incentive if they continue to be employed for at least 3 consecutive months iv.

14. Does my company need to hire the jobseeker before onboarding them on Career Trial?

No. Individuals on Career Trial are not employees. Companies will need to end the Career Trial before offering employment to suitable jobseekers. Similarly, companies should not have any contractual agreements with the jobseekers prior to and during the Career Trial as it would indicate an employer-employee relationship, which may result in the jobseekers being ineligible for the programme funding.

15. Does my company need to fully utilise the approved Career Trial hours before offering employment to suitable jobseekers?

No, your company does not need to fully utilise the full approved Career Trial hours before offering employment to suitable jobseekers. However, the Training Allowance will only be paid based on the number of completed hours (instead of the full approved hours).

16. Are there appointed consultants to assist companies in their Career Trial application?

WSG/NTUC's e2i does not appoint nor endorse any service provider or consultant to help companies/individuals to apply for Career Trial. WSG/NTUC's e2i are not liable for any services rendered by any company which markets and charges consultancy fees in relation to any Career Trial application or other submission.

Please contact Workforce Singapore or NTUC's e2i for any assistance / query regarding Career Trial.

WSG

Hotline: 6883 5885

Service Portal: https://service-portal.skillsfuture.gov.sg

NTUC's e2i

Hotline: 6474 0606

Email: followup@e2i.com.sg

17. What is MyCareersFuture.gov.sg?

MyCareersFuture.gov.sg (MCF) is a portal that aims to provide Singapore Citizens and Permanent Residents with a free job search experience that matches them to relevant jobs based on the jobseeker's skills.

For more information, please refer to the FAQ for MCF:

- a. Go to https://employer.mycareersfuture.gov.sg/
- b. Scroll to bottom and click on "FAQ"

18. Is it a requirement to post the Career Trial position on MyCareersFuture.sg portal? Why?

Yes, it is a requirement to post the Career Trial position on the MyCareersFuture.gov.sg portal as proof of active hiring, as well as the number of vacancies for the position.

Refer to these steps to create a job posting:

- a. Click on "Create job posting"
- b. Key in the information needed (job description, skills, key information and workplace details)
- c. Review job posting
- d. Click "Submit"

19. I have created a MyCareersFuture (MCF) job posting, but why it is not available for selection under my Career Trial application?

Only valid MCF job postings can be selected for Career Trial applications. Please check that your MCF posting is still valid and is tagged as either "Full-Time" or "Part-Time" (depending on your Career Trial position).

You may refer to Section C (Q15 and Q16) of the following FAQ on how you can extend the validity period of your MCF posting and edit your MCF posting:

- a. Go to https://employer.mycareersfuture.gov.sg/
- b. Scroll to bottom and click on "FAQ"

20. Does my company need to wait for the Career Trial position to be approved by WSG/NTUC's e2i before inviting jobseekers for Career Trial?

Yes, host companies need to receive written approval from WSG/NTUC's e2i on the applied Career Trial position before inviting jobseekers for Career Trial.

21. Does my company need to wait for the jobseeker to be approved by WSG/NTUC's e2i before commencing them on Career Trial?

Yes, host companies need to receive written approval from WSG or NTUC's e2i on the jobseeker application before commencing Career Trial.

D. Shortlisting Jobseekers

1. How do I shortlist jobseekers for the Career Trial?

The jobseekers must first be marked as "Hired" in MyCareersFuture.gov.sg.

The "Hired" Applicants on MyCareersFuture.gov.sg will then be listed on the Career Trial Portal (https://go.gov.sg/ct-employer) in order for you to send them the Career Trial invitation link.

2. How do I send a Career Trial invitation to a shortlisted jobseeker?

Kindly note that the last day for companies to send Career Trial invites to jobseekers is 1 Apr 2025. Please also inform the jobseeker that they would have to accept the invitation (though submission of Career Trial Jobseeker Application) by 15 Apr 2025.

You may follow the following steps:

- a. Go to the Career Trial Portal: https://go.gov.sg/ct-employer
- b. Click on

My Applications

and log in with Singpass

c. Look for the relevant Career Trial position and click on

Send or Withdraw Invitations

⁶ This does not mean that host company is obliged to offer employment to the jobseeker after the completion of Career Trial. Employment should only be offered if the Career Trial jobseeker is deemed to be suitable for the job role. Host companies are required to inform jobseekers whether he/she is offered employment, within five working days after completion of Career Trial.

3. I faced an error when trying to send the Career Trial invite to my jobseeker, how do I proceed?

Your MyCareersFuture (MCF) job posting needs to be valid before the Career Trial invite can be sent to the shortlisted jobseeker. In the event that the MCF job posting has closed/expired, you need to either repost it or submit a new Career Trial application for the position with a new MCF job posting. Kindly note that each MCF job posting can only be reposted twice within a period of 6 months from the original date of job posting. Please check that your MCF posting is tagged as either "Full-Time" or "Part-Time" (depending on your Career Trial position).

You may refer to Section C (Q15 and Q16) of the following FAQ on how you can edit your MCF posting:

- a. Go to https://employer.mycareersfuture.gov.sg/
- b. Scroll to bottom and click on "FAQ".

Kindly note that the last day for companies to send new CT invites to jobseekers is 1 Apr 2025 and the last day for jobseekers to submit jobseeker application (via acceptance of CT invite) is 15 Apr 2025.

4. Why is the number of approved Career Trial hours and vacancies lesser than what I submitted in the Career Trial application?

The number of approved Career Trial hours and vacancies may differ from your Career Trial application. Upon approval of the company's Career Trial position, companies must check the number of Career Trial hours and vacancies approved via the following steps:

- a. Go to the Career Trial Portal: https://go.gov.sg/ct-employer
- b. Click on

and log in with Singpass

c. Look for the relevant Career Trial position and click on

d. Look under "Total Hours Approved" and "Vacancies Approved":

5. Can I make edits to applications submitted by the jobseeker?

No, companies cannot edit the details in a Career Trial jobseeker application form submitted by the jobseeker.

E. Training Allowance (TA) and Retention Incentive (RI) Claim

1. What are the deadlines to submit the claims for Career Trial?

The deadline for host companies to submit Training Allowance (TA) claims is 6 months from the respective jobseeker application approval date, provided that the approved Career Trial jobseeker commenced Career Trial by 31 May 2025.

The deadlines for jobseekers to submit Retention Incentive (RI) and Additional Retention Incentive (ARI) are 9 months from the CT end date and 12 months from the CT end date respectively.

2. How does my company submit a claim for the jobseeker's Career Trial Training Allowance?

- a. Go to the Career Trial Portal: https://go.gov.sg/ct-employer
- b. Click on

c. Look for the relevant Career Trial position and click on

d. Search for the relevant jobseeker's application and click on

3. Can my company submit multiple Training Allowance claims for a jobseeker?

Yes, if the Career Trial duration is more than one (1) month. Training Allowance claim can be submitted monthly, provided that the approved Career Trial jobseeker commenced Career Trial by 31 May 2025.

4. After completion of the Career Trial, will WSG/NTUC's e2i prompt my company to submit the jobseekers' Training Allowance claim?

No, there is no reminder notification. Host company should exercise due diligence to submit the Training Allowance claim timely monthly. Please take note that the usual claims deadline will apply, provided that the approved Career Trial jobseeker commenced Career Trial by 31 May 2025.

5. Must my Career Trial jobseeker have a PayNow account in order to receive Training Allowance claim?

For WSG approved CT jobseeker applications, they need to set up their PayNow that is linked to NRIC before claims submission as claims will be paid via PayNow.

For NTUC's e2i approved CT jobseeker applications, e2i will disburse the TA via GIRO. Hence PayNow set up is not required.

6. How can jobseekers create a PayNow that is linked to his/her NRIC?

Jobseekers can create a PayNow account with his/her bank and link to his/her NRIC via:

- 1) SMS (selected banks)
- 2) Internet banking
- 3) Mobile banking app

Should the jobseeker face any problems, he/she should contact the bank directly. Click on the following participating banks for more details.

- Bank of China
- Citibank Singapore Limited
- DBS Bank/POSB
- HSBC
- Industrial and Commercial Bank of China Limited
- Maybank
- OCBC Bank
- Standard Chartered Bank
- UOB

7. Will my company need to pay CPF on the Training Allowance and Retention Incentive under the Career Trial for the jobseeker?

No, as there is no employer-employee relationship during the Career Trial period. If the jobseeker is hired by your company after the completion of Career Trial, CPF contributions must be made on the salary given to the hire as there is an employer-employee relationship.

8. Can my company commence employment upon completion of Career Trial before the final Training Allowance claim is disbursed?

Yes, companies can commence employment after the Career Trial has ended. The final Training Allowance claim disbursement will not be affected.

9. If my company sends the Career Trial jobseeker for training on requisite courses like WSQ Basic Food Hygiene or WSQ Perform Guard and Petrol Services / WSQ Handle Security Incidents and Services, are those hours eligible for Training Allowance?

No, all external training hours are not claimable for Training Allowance under Career Trial.

F. Part-Time Career Trial

1. What is Part-Time employment?

Part-time employment is an arrangement which allows your employees to work fewer hours as compared to a full-time employee, on a regular basis. Part-time employees normally work less than 35 hours a week.

A part-time employee is one who is under a contract of service to work less than 35 hours a week.

2. What is a contract of service?

Based on MOM's guidelines, the contract of service for part-time employees must specify:

- Hourly basic rate of pay.
- Hourly gross rate of pay (the hourly basic rate plus allowances).
- Number of working hours per day or per week.
- Number of working days per week or per month.
- Please refer to MOM's website for more information on part-time employment: https://www.mom.gov.sg/employment-practices/part-time-employment#contract

3. What are common types of Part-Time work arrangements?

- a. Shorter workdays (e.g. half-day work week)
- b. Fewer workdays (e.g. fewer workdays based on full day work hours each day)

4. What working arrangements are excluded from Part-Time Career Trial?

Temporary, casual work arrangements, and positions on compressed work week or flexi-time schedule are excluded.

G. Insurance and Excluded Occupations

1. Will eligible jobseekers be covered by insurance under the Career Trial?

Yes, eligible jobseekers undergoing the Career Trial will be covered by insurance^ paid for by WSG/NTUC's e2i except for the occupations listed in the Exclusion List of Occupations in Annex A.

^The Group Personal Accident insurance provides coverage for accidental bodily injury.

2. Does the insurance provided by WSG/NTUC's e2i cover all kinds of occupations? No. Refer to Exclusion List of Occupations in Annex A for the list of occupations which are excluded under Career Trial. For excluded occupations, the host company must provide insurance coverage for the jobseekers during the period of Career Trial as WSG/NTUC's e2i does not provide the insurance coverage.

H. Others

1. Is Career Trial applicable for all hiring positions?

Career Trial is applicable as long as there is a need for a trial period for the company and jobseeker to assess job fit, considering factors such as the occupation, industry and jobseeker profile.

2. Can my company vary the Career Trial duration for the job position?

Yes, host companies have the flexibility to customise the Career Trial duration between 16 hours and 480 hours according to the needs of the job trial, subject to approval from WSG/NTUC's e2i. The jobseeker's Career Trial duration must be within the "Total Hours Approved". If companies decide to trial the jobseeker beyond the "Total Hours Approved", the company will be liable to compensate the jobseeker directly for the hours beyond "Total Hours Approved".

3. How many Career Trial positions can my company apply for under the Career Trial?

At initial onboarding, host companies may apply for up to 2 Career Trial vacancies per position, capped at 2 job positions. Companies may apply for more vacancies at a later time, after utilisation of the approved vacancies. All additional applications are subjected to approval by WSG/NTUC's e2i.

4. How can my company update additional Career Trial vacancies after approved vacancies are utilised?

You may follow the following steps:

- a. Go to the Career Trial Portal: https://go.gov.sg/ct-employer
- b. Click on

and log in with Singpass

c. Look for the relevant Career Trial position and click on

5. Is there an expiry date for the approved Career Trial positions?

Yes, it is based on the validity of your MyCareersFuture (MCF) job posting. Each job posting is valid for up to 30 calendar days and you can repost a Closed/Expired job posting by clicking on 'View/Repost Job Post' and then 'Repost'. Each job post can only be reposted twice within a period of 6 months from the original date of job posting.

Host companies who wish to reactivate their expired Career Trial position will need to post the position on https://employer.mycareersfuture.gov.sg/ and submit a new Career Trial host company application with the MCF Job ID.

6. If my company has more than one position which we are interested to onboard Career Trial, can we submit multiple Career Trial applications concurrently? Yes, please submit each position as a separate Career Trial application. For example, if you would like to submit a position which can be offered full-time or part-time, please submit 2 separate Career Trial applications.

7. Does my company need to offer employment to the jobseeker after the Career Trial?

Employment must be offered if the jobseeker is deemed to be suitable for the job role. Host companies should offer employment (on permanent terms or on contract terms that are no less than one (1) year) to suitable jobseekers (with monthly fixed salary and CPF contributions) or inform the jobseeker(s) if employment is not offered. Host companies are required to inform the jobseeker whether he/she is to be offered employment, within five working days after completion of the Career Trial.

8. Can the probation period be considered under Career Trial?

No, since the probation period is in the context of an employment and not Career Trial.

9. If my company does not qualify for the Career Trial, are there any other similar programmes?

Companies and jobseekers can tap on WSG's other manpower development programmes, such as the Career Conversion Programmes (CCPs) and Mid-Career Pathways Programme (MCPP).

Brief Description of CCPs and MCPP:

- CCPs provide employers with salary support of up to 90% to reskill midcareer new hires or existing employees into growth jobs roles with good longer-term prospects (Please refer to this link for more details).
- MCPP provides attachment opportunities to mature individuals aged 40 and above. The programme helps mature individuals widen their professional networks and gain industry-relevant skills and experience. Host organisations can also benefit from the wealth of experience that these mature individuals bring along. Mature trainees can be emplaced in a full-time role with their host organisations if they perform satisfactorily during their attachment (Please refer to this link for more details).

10. If my company hires a jobseeker who is suspended from SSG/WSG/e2i funding, can we still continue to hire/retain the individual?

Yes, the company may continue to hire/retain the jobseeker who has been suspended from WSG/SSG/NTUC's e2i's programmes/funding. However, the jobseeker will not be eligible for any Career Trial funding.

11. What kinds of action will lead to such suspension(s)?

There are a few reasons why jobseekers may be barred from receiving further grants from SSG/WSG/NTUC's e2i, such as jobseekers not fulfilling their programme obligations with SSG/WSG/NTUC's e2i without valid reasons.

I. Corppass

1. What role should I be assigned in Corppass to access the Career Trial Portal? You will need to be assigned with the "WSG G2B Employer Portal" e-service and "G2B Employer" role.

You can click here to find out who is your organisation's Corppass Admin.

2. What role should I be assigned in Corppass to access the MyCareersFuture.gov.sg Portal?

You will need to be assigned with the "MyCareersFuture Employer Portal" eservice and "JOB ADMIN" role.

You can click here to find out who is your organisation's Corppass Admin.

3. How do I remove access for a colleague who has left my Organsation? You will need to inform your organisation's Corppass Admin to remove their access to the "WSG G2B Employer Portal" and remove the "G2B Employer" role.

You can click here to find out who is your organisation's Corppass Admin.

4. What is the change in the Corppass log in process?

From 11 April 2021, employers will be required to login to government digital services for business (G2B) using Singpass instead of Corppass. For more information, visit: https://go.gov.sg/corporate-login.

Corppass will continue to be the one-stop authorisation system for entities to authorise or remove their employees' access to government digital services on their behalf.

5. Where can I get further assistance for Corppass?

To find out more about the functions or seek assistance on Corppass, please go to https://www.corppass.gov.sg/corppass/common/userguides

Annex A – Exclusion List of Occupations

The occupations listed below are not insured under Career Trial:

S/N	Occupation	Job Description
1	Electrical Wiring	Minor repairs on electrical wirings and electrical
	Installer	parts replacements.
		To carry out inspection of all electrical installation
		Change and repair lightings
		Troubleshooting electrical panels and control switch boards of high voltage
2	Plumber / Pipe-fitter	Install, repair and maintain plumbing systems and components
		Plan, install and service plumbing systems, fixtures, piping equipment and controls
3	Sprinkler & Fire	Perform preventive/ad-hoc maintenance, facilities
	Protection Systems	and building works, such as minor handyman
	Installer	repairs
		Repair and troubleshooting AV systems, mechanical and electrical systems
4	Timber Doors &	Install doors and windows
	Windows Installer	Perform other installation works including laying/trucking of wire, drilling ceiling holes
5	Interior Drywall	Trims rough edges from wallboard to maintain
	Installer	even joints, using knife.
		Assembles and installs metal framing and decorative trim for windows, doorways, and vents.
		Cuts openings into board for electrical outlets, windows, vents, or fixtures, using keyhole saw or other cutting tools.
6	Crane Operators	To operate the assigned vehicle, e.g. hydraulic
	(Saddle Jip)	mobile/crawler crane to perform various tasks,
7	Luffing Jib Crane	e.g. lifting, delivery and/or deployment of
	Operator	materials and equipment in construction site
8	Crawler Crane	Carry out regular preventive maintenance for the
	Operators	crane
9	Mobile Crane	To operate the assigned vehicle in line with proper
	Operators	safety procedures and operations regulations

Occupational Class 4 - Persons engaged in occupations with exposure to highly hazardous environment.

G2C0050 / Last updated on 15 Jan 2025

Please note the excluded occupations listed below are not exhaustive, some examples are:

Type of Excluded Occupation
Fireman	Policeman	Woodworking machinist etc.
Construction site	Armed security guard	Occupations or work
workers or unskilled		involving exposure to oil rig
workers at		platform and/or offshore work
construction site
Occupations or work		Occupations or work
involving fire fighters,	Divers or occupations	involving wood or timber police, military, naval	involving deep sea diving	working, welding, working at or air force service		heights 30 feet above ground and operations		level, underground &
		Handling hazardous chemical or explosive materials
Occupations or work	Occupations involving	Ship breakers requiring use of	manual work in hazardous
heavy machinery	places (construction site,
(cranes, forklifts,	dock, hangar, oil refinery, bulldozers and the	shipyard and the like) like, vehicles requiring Class 4 license and above)
Ship crew or workers	Pilots, air stewards,
on board vessels	stewardesses or air crew (stationery or offshore)
Stevedores

Annex B – Sample Career Trial Activities Plans

The activities should help companies assess a jobseeker's fit to job requirements. Companies are welcomed to customise the activities to meet their operation needs.

Retail Assistant	Details
Outline of Career Trial Objectives	Understand the working environment and day-to-day operations of the retail industry
	Details of Activities / Tasks
Week 1	 Orientation Understand the company structure, brand and work environment in the retail sector Brief on responsibilities and expectations of a retail assistant Brief on company's service standards and etiquette Brief on products and current promotions Store Operations Perform store opening & closing, housekeeping duties Understand merchandise display Customer Engagement Attend to customers Handle enquiries and feedback Upsell to customers Cashiering Understand different modes of payment Pack goods into paper bags Inventory Management Receive goods and stock control Understand inventory storage and replenishment processes Others Please indicate other activities & tasks that are not listed
Total Duration	above 40hours
	1 0110013

Sales & Marketing Executive / Manager	Details
Outline of Career Trial Objectives	 To understand the day-to-day job requirements, as well as learn some basic skills required of a sales and marketing professional To adapt and work well in a fluid and collaborative environment, as well as be able to work under pressure within tight timelines
Week 1	Details of Activities / Tasks
	Company Orientation - Introduction of the ICT industry - Overview of the company's vision, suite of products and services, organisational structure and work culture
	Drive Marketing Campaigns (Offline and/or Online) - Generate design concepts and ideas for marketing campaigns and communication materials - Select suitable offline, traditional or digital platforms, as well as plan contents and activities in support of marketing campaigns - Monitor marketing activities effectiveness, analyse efforts and acquire insights
Week 2	Implement Communication Plans and PR Activities - Develop communication materials - Implement crisis management action plans - Review external communication platforms and channels - Implement PR activities - Comply with social, ethical, legal and regulatory parameters and guidelines for PR activities and social media platforms
Week 3	Create Sales Strategies and Opportunities - Analyse data and intel on competitor landscape and customer demand to identify sales opportunities - Develop sales strategies to align with market segmentation, competitor analysis and overall corporate strategies - Propose and manage sales channels and network expansion plans - Participate in industry events
Week 4	Acquire and Manage Sales Accounts, Liaise with Technical Teams - Identify client's needs and recommend products and services to match their needs

	 Prepare and present sales proposals to clients Handle clients' enquiries Provide pre-sales technical expertise to account teams and customers for managed services and networking opportunities Conduct negotiation of sales agreements Follow up with clients to close sales Develop measures to enhance client retention and loyalty Communicate clients' feedback and market sentiments to internal stakeholders to enhance products and services Provide guidance to technical authors by reviewing, editing and optimizing documents
Week 5	Budget Management - Monitor expenses and adhere to budget allocations - Administer acquisition and payment processes - Engage in cost-saving efforts
Total Duration	208 hours

Annex D – Timesheet Template (For Part-Time Career Trial)

CAREER TRIAL TIMESHEET

Date	Time In	Time Out	Total Number of Work Hours
Total of No of H	ours: (cap	ped at 80hrs/month)
Name of Jobseeker:		Name & Designation (HR manager or equivalent):
Signature/ date:		Signature/ Date:	